

Supreme Court on Education: The SC observed that the "massification" and privatization of higher education in India has led to an "epidemic of distress," citing rising student suicides and chronic vacancies.